 - Scalable from 100 to over 10,000 uniform wearers
 - Reduction in the customer's resource to manage your uniforms

EXPERIENCE & EXPERTISE

We have experience in managing Trans-Tasman contracts

PROVEN SUPPLY CHAIN

Our supply partners are carefully chosen to ensure quality and consistency.

01.

Our on-shore and off-shore factories comply with internationally accepted social and ethical standards.

02.

We are committed to consistently delivering high quality garments in full and on time.

03.

Sound business management which is audited by Intertek, an international specialist in this industry.

04.

Our on-shore factories offer us risk mitigation through multi-site manufacturing.

05.

We create all patterns in-house to ensure garment consistency regardless of where they are manufactured.

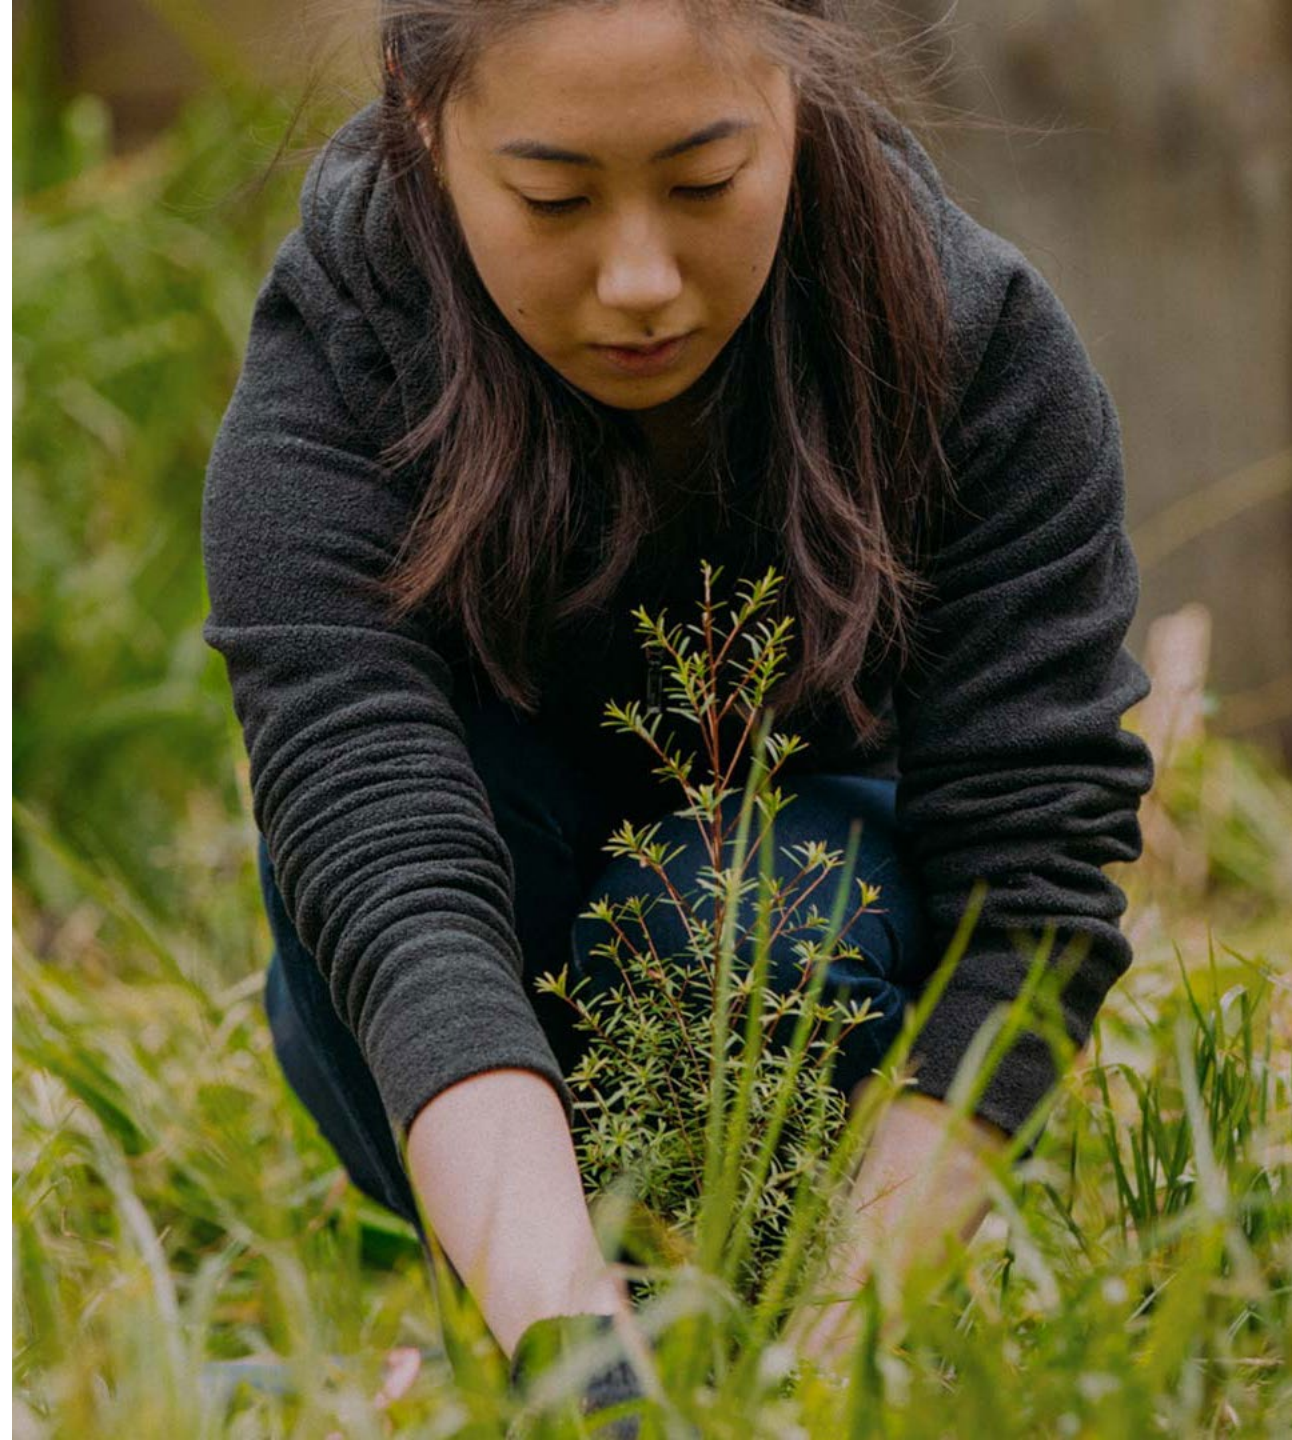

OUR COMMITMENT TO THE PLANET

We value our planet and the people who occupy it. Our commitment to ensuring optimal working conditions and best sustainable practices is ongoing as seen in our Sustainability and Social Responsibility Manifesto.

We evaluate our supply chain on the Global Supply Chain Compliance platform and audit using the Working Conditions Assessment managed by Intertek.

We manage our packaging to minimise waste and include non-recyclable materials.

OUR COMMITMENT TO THE PLANET

We are introducing sustainable fabrics into our fabric library.

We are actively involved in seeking local solutions to end of life of garments.

We support a non-profit organisation in researching sustainable products that support women in the workforce in poorer economies.

We support Ronald McDonald House - an organization whose mission is to improve the health and well-being of children.
